Adopted in Convention assembled at Nashvile, on the 19th of January last. of January lost.

The Democratic party of Tennessee, in convention assembled, deeming it their duty to make a desiaration of the principles that will form the basis of their action in the fature, and having carefully re examined the ground which they have heretefore occupied, and with the developments of the last four years in view, Be it Resolved, That we hereby re-affirm the principles announced in the platform of the Democratic party adopted in convention at Gincinnati, in June, 1856, and that we hold them to be a true exposition of our doctrines on the subjects embraced. Resolved, That the views expressed by the Supreme Court of the United States in the decision of the case of "Dred Scott," are, in our opinion, a true and clear exposition of the powers reposed in Congress upon the subject of the Terrifories of the United States, and the rights guaranteed to the residents in the Terrifories.

one of the prerogatives of self-government—the States did not surreader this right in the Federal Constitution, and Tennessee will not now do so.

Resolved, That the Federal government has no power to interfere with slavery in the States; or to introduce into or exclude it from the territories, and no duty to perform in relation thereto, but to protect the sights of the owner from wrong and to restore fugitives from labor; these duties it cannot withheld without a violation of the Constitution.

Resolved, That we approve, generally, of the administration of James Buchanan, and that he deserves and receives our tribute of admiration for his clear and lacid exposition of the true destrine of the Constitution and laws of our Union, and for his firmness in releasing sedition and treason.

Resolved, That we have full confidence in the patriotism and windom of the representatives of our party at Charleston, and we will give our hearty support to the noninee of that convention.

Besolved, That the organisation of the Republican party upon strictly sectional principles, and its hostility to the institution of slavery, which is recognized by the Constitution, and which is inseparably connected with the social and industrial pursuits of the southern States of the Confederacy, is war upon the principles of the Constitution and upon the rights of the States.

Resolved, That the late treasonable invasion of Virginia, by an organized band of Republicans, was the necessary result of the doctrines, teachings and principles of that party; was the begin ning of the "trepressible conflict" of Mr. Seward, was a blow aimed at the institution of slavery, by an effort to excite a servile insurrection; was war upon the South, and as such, it is the dity of the South to prepare to maintain its rights under the Constitution.

Resolved, That if this war upon the constitutional rights of CESAR BIROTTEAU. A J. IIIICAN From the French of Honore de Baleac.

> Translated by O. W. WIGHT! AND F. B. GOODRICH. In one Elegant Volume, 12mo. Cloth.

Ropp & Cantaron have got out the first of their series of the novels of Honora se Balanc translated by Messes, O. W. Wisser and F. B. Goodkien, both gentleman favorably known in connection with original and translated works. The present is entitled "The Greatness and Decline of Cesar Birotteau," and the translators introduce it with the following Preface: "That the Novels of Honore de Baisse, says the London Critic, 'are immes urably the greatest works of the kind that France-indeed, w would add, any other country—has ever seen, does not admit of the slightest dispute. That they go desper into the human heart, sent more truly the human passions, and reflect with greater curacy the phases of human life, than any other novellst ha BINGHAM, MULLEN & CO. ver been able to do, is admitted by all who know anything about he matter. Some may object that there are features in h appositions which render them undesirable subjects of study t he young and pure. To this we reply that we are not of that opinion.
